Product Line: Copernicus Educational Products

Introduction

Copernicus Educational Products Inc., continues to lead the marketplace with our educational classroom teaching aids designed to "make teaching a little easier." Copernicus has built a strong reputation over the years with our ongoing product innovation and classroom research practices.

Through a shared focus, our people make great things happen. We have a passion to develop, manufacture and deliver solutions to help teachers and students. There is also a love of nature and simply having fun that resonates throughout the company.

Those are the foundations of our brand: Real Classroom Ready and with the different types of classrooms right now: indoor, outdoor and remote, we're ready for all of them!

We aim to help to empower teachers to inspire students to reach their greatest potential with the help of our tools.

In short, at Copernicus we love what we do and act from that love when we design, manufacture, sell, deliver, and support our products. As a B Corporation we believe that how we operate and what impact we have in the world is important in making a more verdant world for the next generations.
